

Puppy Pre-School

Reasons to bring your puppy to puppy pre-school training:

- It's good for their physical and mental wellbeing - training helps your puppy cope with unfamiliar experiences and prevents fear of meeting new people and other dogs.
- You can spend some quality time together - dogs are social animals that love their humans. This is a good opportunity to get to know your puppy and understand their temperament.
- Trained puppies are well behaved puppies - this includes visits to the vet, public places and even at home (being able to leave them at home or joining a family get-together).
